Day by Day Itinerary

Saturday, July 13 – CHICAGO / EN ROUTE (I)

This evening we depart Chicago's O'Hare International Airport by scheduled service of Scandinavian Airlines on the overnight transatlantic flight to Copenhagen, Denmark.

Sunday, July 14 – COPENHAGEN / OSLO (I,D)

We arrive this afternoon in Copenhagen and continue by connecting flight to Oslo, Norway. On arrival, we'll meet our local Tour Guide who will introduce us to Oslo's compact town center where the concentration of activity creates a charming atmosphere.

Monday, July 15 – OSLO (B)

Founded by Viking King Harald in 1050, the capital of Norway is encircled by wooded hills and a beautiful harbor located at the tip of Oslo Fjord. This morning we will enjoy an introductory tour of cosmopolitan Oslo. We'll start along the waterfront where we'll see the distinctive Radhus with its massive twin towers and take in Oslo Cathedral. Then we'll travel along Karl Johans Gate where we'll see both the National Theatre and the Royal Palace. We'll also visit the controversial Vigeland Sculptures in Frogner Park and Holmenkollen Hill with its well-known ski jump and beautiful view of the city. Afterward, we'll return to Oslo for an afternoon at leisure - an opportunity to enjoy shopping along Karl Johans Gate or time to visit one of the city's outstanding museums, including the Munch Museum, named after Norwegian artist Edvard Munch.

Tuesday, July 16 – OSLO (Bygdøy Peninsula) (B)

In preparation for our upcoming Hurtigruten voyage, this morning we'll travel to Bygdøy Peninsula to visit the Viking Ship Museum. We'll view three Viking ships, the Soeberg, the Gokstad, and the Tune, built between 800 and 900, and excavated in the late 1800s and early 1900s, with displays offering insight into how they were found and preserved. The Tune ship was the first Viking ship to be unearthed and remains the third best-preserved ship in the world. Afterward, we'll visit the Fram Museum that explores the history of Norwegian polar exploration, and offers exhibitions on the Arctic and Northwest Passage. The museum also has a polar simulator where we can experience the cold and dangers polar expeditions faced more than 100 years ago. This afternoon we'll return to Oslo's friendly and compact town center, a cosmopolitan hub with an abundance of world-class architecture, museums, restaurants and shopping.

Wednesday, July 17 – OSLO / KIRKENES (B,L)

This morning we return to Oslo Airport and take to the skies for the town of Kirkenes. East meets West at this Northern Norwegian town, just a few miles from the Russian border. On arrival, we'll meet our local Tour Guide who will introduce us to Kirkenes history, daily life, relationship to Russia, and much more. We'll visit Andersgrotta, the town's bomb shelter during World War II, taste Russian specialties, and take in a great view of Kirkenes from Prestfjellet Mountain.

Thursday, July 18 – KIRKENES / CRUISING (Kirkenes – Berlevåg) (B,L,D)

Today we travel to Hurtigruten Quay for embarkation aboard the MS Polarlys. But don't confuse a Hurtigruten with the typical cruise ship. The ship's small size allows passengers to get up close to natural wonders, and other sights that many people only dream about.

For more than 100 years, the Hurtigruten has been captivating travelers with a scenic adventure that showcases some of the world's most breathtaking scenery. Unlike most cruises, which promote the ship and shipboard activities as the focal points of the trip, the "World's Most Beautiful Voyage" caters to individuals seeking travel adventure by offering port-intensive experiences, a casual ambience aboard ship, and three hearty meals daily. During our cruise, we will stop at no less than 34 colorful ports of call, ranging from major cities to small fishing hamlets. At some ports, the ship stops only long enough to load and unload cargo, while at others it docks for several hours, affording plenty of time to explore the town or take part in one of the ship's optional shore excursions.

Friday, July 19 – CRUISING (Mehamn – Tromsø) (B,L,D)

Summer shows pristine and green Norway at its Midnight Sun finest with long days and literally hours of spectacular sunset skies. The intense extended daylight above the Arctic Circle lasts around the clock, giving us more than enough time to discover the beautiful coastline. We'll arrive in Honningsvåg, where you can start your day with an optional breakfast at North Cape, the northernmost part of Norway that reaches around Sweden and meets Finland. Our first major stop is Hammerfest, the world's northernmost natural gas terminal, where the sun does not set from May 21 through July 28. Despite its northerly location, Hammerfest offers a sheltered, ice-free harbor, and over time became Norway's polar capital, serving as a base for hunting expeditions into the High Arctic. Here you can see the UNESCO-listed Meridian Column, erected in 1854 to commemorate the first precise geographic measurement of the globe. Late this evening we'll dock at Tromsø, where you can enjoy a walk around town or take part in an optional midnight concert at the Arctic Cathedral.

Saturday, July 20 – CRUISING (Tromsø – Stamsund) (B,L,D)

The daylight sailing through idyllic Vesterålen and the Lofoten Islands is a highlight for many Hurtigruten guests. The Lofoten region is renowned for its natural beauty with steep mountains, wild nature and small, picturesque fishing villages. Passing through a stunning network of inlets and isles, we'll soon see the majestic peaks of the Lofoten Wall, before reaching the narrow Raftsund. This 12-mile passage takes us to the spectacular Trollfjord, where steep cliffs hug the ship's sides, and the dramatic landscape conjures images of an imaginary land of trolls. In the early evening, we'll arrive at the port capital of Svolvær. When fishing isn't occupying the hearts and minds of the locals, the Lofotens are best known for their thriving summertime artist colonies inspired by the beauty of the islands. In addition, several exciting optional excursions will offer an opportunity that can make you feel like a natural born explorer.

Sunday, July 21 – CRUISING (Bodø – Rørvik) (B,L,D)

Crossing the Arctic Circle at 66°33'N is an important rite of passage. Today we'll celebrate the event on deck with a taste of Arctic tradition – a spoonful of cod liver oil! Another highlight will take us along the Helgeland coast with its hundreds of islets and steep granite walls rich in local lore. We'll see the Seven Sisters mountain range. All seven peaks are between 2,800 and 3,600 feet high, and it is easy to understand how these 'ladies' led to an ancient myth. Side-by-side, the seven mountaintops look so beautiful that a local legend claims they are female trolls turned to stone. You'll also want to be on deck when we sail past Torgatten Mountain, famous for its characteristic hole that goes right through the mountain. Legends include an arrow being fired by the troll Hestmannen piercing the mountain - the hole has to be seen to be believed!

Monday, July 22 – CRUISING

Early this morning we arrive in the city of Trondheim. With its colorful warehouses, waterways, and wooded hills, Trondheim is without doubt one of Norway's most photogenic towns. Most of Trondheim's sights are within easy walking distance of each other, making Norway's third-largest city and its historic capital a pleasure to explore. In the Middle Ages, Trondheim became Norway's religious center and historic Nidaros Cathedral remains one of Scandinavia's most significant medieval structures. If you're interested in an in-depth introduction, an optional city walk will take you on a journey through Trondheim's 1,000 year history. Back on board, we'll sail along the coast to the town of Kristiansund, regarded as Norway's "cured cod capital" because of its long-time export of salted dry fish. Here you can join an optional excursion along the Atlantic Road. The road's roller coaster-feel, curvy bridges, and phenomenal views have made it a favorite of road trippers.

Tuesday, July 23 – CRUISING / BERGEN (B,L,D)

During the night, our ship calls at the ports of Ålesund, Torvik, and Måløy, as our voyage draws to a close. Before we dock in Bergen, there are still more nautical miles of fascinating scenery ahead, including the picturesque Nordfjord below the enormous Jostedal Glacier, and the mighty Sognefjord with superb views of the magnificent island-studded coastline. This afternoon our Hurtigruten passage comes to an end in the Hanseatic port of Bergen. Following disembarkation, we'll enjoy an introductory tour of Bergen that will take us past Bergenhus Fortress and its beautiful park, to the UNSECO World Heritage Site of Bryggen, where we'll enjoy a walking tour of Market Square and the waterfront with its age-old wooden buildings and narrow planked alleyways.

Wednesday, July 24 – BERGEN / CHICAGO (B,I)

This morning we travel to Bergen Airport in preparation for the return journey home. No better time to reflect on memories of our Norwegian Coastal Voyage that will last a lifetime and new friendships made along the way.
