Day by Day Itinerary

Thursday, March 10 – CHICAGO / EN ROUTE (I)

We depart Chicago's O'Hare International Airport this afternoon by scheduled service of Iberia Airlines of Spain on the overnight transatlantic flight to Madrid, Spain.

Friday, March 11 – MADRID / GRANADA (I,HD)

As the sun begins to rise on the Iberian Peninsula we arrive in Madrid and continue by connecting flight to Granada. On arrival, we'll meet our Tour Escort who will accompany us on vacation. As we'll soon find out, Granada is a vibrant, friendly, and lively metropolis beautifully situated at the foot of the snow-capped Sierra Nevada Mountains in the heart of Southern Andalusia.

Saturday, March 12 – GRANADA (B)

Granada is a brilliant jewel of Moorish architecture, as we'll see on our tour of the fabled Alhambra, a compound of palaces, a fortress and lush gardens built in the 14th century where magical use of space, light, water, and decoration characterize the delicate craftsmanship. We'll also visit the Generalife, the country estate of the Nasrid kings, complete with fountains, tropical gardens, and picturesque vistas high above the city. This afternoon we'll travel across the city to visit the Albaicin, the former Moorish town with gypsy dwellings. One of the most charming things about visiting the Albaicin is wandering the cobbled streets; tucked away into narrow alleys and quaint squares are some of the oldest and most traditional shops. We'll visit Cerámica Fajaluz where the ceramic plant pots and bowls, typically white with a blue and green design, have been made since 1517. Our tour will come to an end as we return to the old city center where we'll see the Cathedral of the Incarnation and visit the Royal Chapel built to enshrine Ferdinand and Isabella. Following our tour, the remainder of the day is at leisure to sightsee Granada's two main squares, the Plaza Bib-Rambla and the Plaza Nueva.

Sunday, March 13 – GRANADA / RONDA (B,HD)

This morning we depart Granada and travel through the market town of Antequera, as we make our way to Ronda, perhaps the most spectacularly located city in the Andalusian Mountains. Afternoon sightseeing will introduce us to the Old Town where we'll visit the church of Santa Maria la Mayor, one of the most important sacred monuments of Ronda, and Casa Don Bosco, a modernist palace built at the beginning of the 20th century. Then we'll cross over the Tajo Gorge to arrive in the New Town that is home to the pedestrian precinct where we'll visit the Plaza de Toros, the second oldest bullring in Spain. Due to its history, architecture, character, and beauty, it is recognized as one of the most monumental bullrings in existence.

Monday, March 14 – RONDA / SEVILLE

(Jerez de la Frontera) (B,L,HD)

After breakfast we depart Ronda and continue our journey across Andalucía to Jerez de la Frontera, located midway between the Atlantic Ocean and the Cádiz Mountains. Jerez's extraordinary geographical location means that the city enjoys the very best fresh local produce, ideal for making its world-famous Sherry, Brandy and Vinegar. Alexander Fleming said, "If penicillin can cure those that are ill, Spanish sherry can bring the dead back to life." We'll soon find out, as we enjoy a tour of the Williams & Humbert Bodega, followed by a Sherry tasting. Afterward, it's time to sit back, relax and enjoy the scenery as we travel to Seville, the capital city of Andalusia that stands on the banks of the Rio Guadalquivir.

Tuesday, March 15 – SEVILLE (B)

Our day will begin with an introductory tour of Seville. Among the treasures that we'll see are the Barrio de Santa Cruz, a warren of white alleyways and patios that have long been the most picturesque corner of the city. Here, we'll visit the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the See, one of the largest and richest gothic Cathedrals in Christendom, unmatched in its abundance of artistic treasures, not to mention its great Giralda Tower, Seville's most prominent landmark. We'll also visit the 14th century Alcazar with its Moorish Palace and lovely gardens and see the Archives of the Indies, the building that houses all the famous drawings of the New World including letters by Columbus and Queen Isabella. We'll end our tour by traveling to the El Arenal district where we'll see the Plaza de Toros de la Maestranza, Seville's 18th century bullring, and the riverfront dominated by the Moorish Torre del Oro, an ideal location for an afternoon of leisure time spent along the tree-lined promenade beside the Paseo de Cristobal Colon.

Wednesday, March 16 – SEVILLE / MADRID (B,HD)

This morning we depart Seville aboard an AVE high-speed train bound for the capital city of Madrid. We'll find that a cosmopolitan air reigns in this fun-loving city as we enjoy a panoramic tour that will take us through Old Madrid, featuring the Puerta del Sol and Plaza Mayor, Bourbon Madrid, home to the Royal Palace, and discover contemporary Madrid, as we travel along the Gran Vía, one of the most fashionable avenues in the world. After checking in at our hotel, the remainder of the day is at leisure. Enjoy shopping around the Puerta Del Sol, an area where craftsmen can still be found, or in the fashionable shops along the Gran Via. Life in Madrid is extremely pleasant, relaxed, and unhurried, so you may prefer to simply enjoy an afternoon at one of the outdoor cafes on the Plaza Mayor.

Thursday, March 17 – MADRID (Toledo) (B,RD)

Today begins with a visit to the Imperial City of Toledo. Built on a hill and surrounded on three sides by the Tagus River, the city is a National Monument reflecting various styles of architecture ranging from the Moorish and Gothic to the Renaissance, dating from the 15th and early 16th centuries. We'll start with a visit the lavish Primate Cathedral of Saint Mary of Toledo. We'll also visit the Church of St. Thomas that has on display the most famous of El Greco's paintings, "The Count de Orgaz", and Santa Maria la Blanca Synagogue. Toledo is also famous as the center of damascene. We'll learn of this time-honored Moorish tradition with a visit to a local workshop and watch the artisans inlaying gold or silver threads into black steel used to decorate plates, earrings, bracelets, and large pendants. On our return to Madrid, the remainder of the day is at leisure. Tonight, we'll enjoy an evening of dinner and entertainment featuring a superb selection of Flamenco and regional dancing. More than just a dance, Flamenco is a forceful artistic expression of the sorrows and joys of life.

Friday, March 18 – MADRID / CHICAGO (B,I)

Early this morning we travel to Madrid's Barajas International Airport in preparation for our return journey home. No better time to reflect on memories of our Highlights of Southern Spain and Madrid vacation that will last a lifetime and new friendships made along the way!
